

Biomass has a unique and varied role in the European energy mix today and tomorrow. Biomass is essential when it comes to EU's energy security, affordability and sustainability priorities. The European Biomass Association and its members are the common voice of the European bioenergy sector. We aim to develop the market for sustainable bioenergy by advocating the multiple benefits of sustainable biomass.

INVITATION

Sustainable Biomass Backs European Economy

Press enquiries:

Anamaria Olaru

Communication and Events Manager
European Biomass Association

+ 32 2 318 40 34

olaru@aebiom.org

@ AEBIOM

December 3rd 2014

Résidence Palace - International Press Centre
Brussels, Belgium

For registration access www.aebiom.org

The European Biomass Association has the honor to invite you to

Sustainable Biomass Backs European Economy

December 3rd 2014

10:00 - 13:00

Résidence Palace - International Press Centre
Rue de la Loi 155 C | 1040 Brussels

Jean-Marc Jossart
Secretary-General
AEBIOM

Gustav Melin
President
AEBIOM

* Please note that this invitation is strictly personal

Wednesday, December 3rd 2014
Résidence Palace - International Press Centre

10:00 - 11:15

Industry Roundtable

Opening by moderator, Dave Keating, European Voice

Fredrick Federley, Member of the European Parliament

Håkan Grefberg, Fortum, Heat, Electricity Sales and Solutions Division, Senior Advisor

Niklas Nilroth, Volvo Construction Equipment, Vice President Environmental Management & CSR

Miguel Castellanos, L'Oréal, Global Environment, Health & Safety Director

Andreas Lingner, KWB Germany, CEO

Cécile Goube, Alliance Forêts Bois, Secretary-General

11:15 - 12:00

Debate

Discussion managed by moderator with questions from the press and audience

12:00 - 13:00

Networking reception and lunch

